

Student Grievances Redressal Committee (SGRC)

The Student Grievances Redressal Committee (SGRC) is constituted to provide a structured, impartial mechanism for addressing student grievances related to academic, administrative, and institutional matters. The committee ensures that complaints are examined promptly, fairly, and confidentially, in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by regulatory bodies.

The SGRC aims to safeguard students' rights, promote transparency, and foster a supportive academic environment. It also plays a preventive role by identifying systemic issues and recommending corrective measures to enhance institutional effectiveness and student satisfaction.
